Think of your current project or a project you would like to implement. Now, reflect on the following questions:

OUTREACH

How are people going to learn about your project? How are you going to advertise it? What populations are less likely to hear about it?

KNOWLEDGE

Are you aware of societal issues that might affect the participation of certain groups in your project?

ROLE MODELS

How could you be a positive role model for others?

Does your project involve people from a variety of backgrounds?

ACCESSIBILITY

How can you make your project more accessible for:

Participants who use a wheelchair
Working class participants
LGBTQ+ participants

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

What do you think are the attitudes of the community towards your project?

How could you engage people from the community in your project?

To learn more about the PIL BUILDING BLOCKS why are they important and how to IMPLEMENT them in a project or event, Go to section 3 of the PLAY IT LOUD! Handbook.
